Missouri Discipleway Training

February 23-25

First Baptist Church, Potosi, MO

We are so excited you are going to be with us in February. There are a few details we want to give as a reminder.

EV2:

Thursday will simply be a one day overview of "Share Your Faith." It is not the complete training for EV2. The EV2 training actually takes 2 1/2 days to cover and is something you can do at your church or in your district as you get closer to covering the witnessing discipline with your disciple in DiscipleWay.

If you are already trained in EE or EV2 you do not need to be at the training until 6:00 p. m. Thursday night. If you are being trained in EV2, those sessions will begin at 9:00 a.m. Thursday morning.

DRESS:

We ask that you dress business casual for this event. Nice jeans would be appropriate.

DEADLINES:

Keep February 11 emblazoned on your mind! That is when the registration forms are due in to the Wallaces. All registration information is on the registration sheet.

MEALS:

Lunch is included in your registration fee. Most hotels in the area provide a hot breakfast buffet. Dinner will be on your own.

MATERIALS:

All training materials for the large group presentations will be provided. Along with your Bible, bring a Strong's Concordance if you have one but this is not a necessary component. DiscipleWay materials will be onsite to sell at the training. You may use your church account, check, or credit card but no cash please.

Alive Conference 2011

My Identity is Found in Christ

by Jim Ainley, ALIVE Committee Chairman

The stage for Alive 2011 was set at the Airport Hilton in St. Louis during the last three days of December. Nearly 280 students and sponsors attended the conference designed to teach us about our identity and how it is found in Christ alone. We were led in worship by Broken Vessels (www.brokenvessels.com), a band with members from Tennessee and Louisiana. They did an excellent job in setting our hearts towards heaven and preparing us to listen to God through His Word. Dustin Wisely from Magnolia, Arkansas was the main speaker. He spoke like a polished veteran, and without a lot of hype and fanfare simply shared the Word of God. He reminded everyone that if we really want to grow, then we have to be in the Word. And as God often does, He touched and changed lives through the preaching of His Word. At least 6 people gave their lives to Christ, and many others recommitted their relationship with God.

A new feature in this year's conference was small group break-out sessions. Blake Shelby of PSE Archery and Johnny LaGrand (from Potosi) of Mountain Screamer Game Calls spoke to the young men about being a godly man in a world that is telling us to be otherwise. Erin Kingston (war veteran and formerly from Bethel Baptist Church, Lonedell) and Jaclyn Rowe (FBC/Potosi; www.jaclynrowe.com) talked to the ladies about such real life issues as modesty, hypocrisy, being a true woman of God, and where to find our identity when things don't go like we planned.

On the lighter side, 321 Improv (www.321improv.com) entertained us and made us laugh till we cried. Check out their website to see what they are all about.

The Alive Committee would like to thank you for all the support and prayers, and we look forward to seeing you at the 2012 Alive Conference. Be looking for our new website coming early 2012. Like us on Facebook: Alive Ministries - Youth Alive Conference.

Bethany, St. Louis, says "Happy New Year" to all our readers. December was a busy and blessed time for our people. December 11th the children presented their Christmas Program which was followed by a Fellowship time. December 18th the choir presented a beautiful Christmas Cantata entitled "Jesus, The Light of the World." Following this, the Church presented our widows and widowers with beautiful and delicious baskets of fruit, snacks, and juices and delivered baskets to our shut-ins along with singing Christmas carols. Christmas Day we had only an 11:00 a.m. worship service which included Scripture readings and special music presented by various participants. Many visitors were present for this service. No evening service allowed time for families to be together. The H.E.O. group enjoyed celebrating New Year's Eve together. Congratulations to Ryan and Amanda Sherwood and big sister Hannah on the arrival of Kyle Michael Sherwood at 3:56 a.m. 1-1-12. He weighs 7 lb. 5 oz., is 19 1/2 inches long with a head full of dark hair. We are looking ahead to the Fifty Days of Prayer and Giving, and working together in the Lord's work for another year.

Friendship, Harviell, reports that December has been a busy month for us, but an enjoyable one. Our Youth were Christmas Angles for a needy family this Christmas Season. December 11th lunch was provided for a group of about 20 people who sang Christmas Carols to some elderly in the community as well as a Residential Home. It was such a blessing to be a part of sharing Christmas Joy to those unable to be out and about! December 18th we had our Christmas Program - "There Is No 'X' in Christmas." The Youth did a great job telling the world that "Jesus is the Reason for the Season." We had a special song service on Christmas Day. Some of our talented church family sang Christmas Carols to us. It was a joyous time as we Celebrated this Christmas Day. We dismissed our evening service so everyone could have some family time. Our Pastor and First Lady, Howard and Thelma Dunlap and Jason and Jesse Cate joined Abundant Life in Christ Mission for their afternoon service. Jesse preached for this service. After the service, we gathered at Rodney and Debra Dunlap's for a wonderful meal and quality family time.

Bates Creek, Potosi, sends 2012 Greetings to all of our sister churches. The Lord truly blessed Bates Creek in 2011 and we just can't wait to see what He has in store for 2012!!! Our WMA had a wonderful Christmas party made complete with a special appearance of Sister Bertha Better Than You also known as Sister Alice. Secret pals were revealed that evening and a good time of food and fellowship was enjoyed by all. Sister Jessica Wright worked with the youth and some "young at heart" members to present a fantastic Christmas program. The program was enjoyed by all and a special thank you is in order to Sister Jess for all of her hard work, time, and effort. It takes a lot to pull off a program complete with 2 year old shepherds but she did it with a smile on her face. She is a talented lady and it is awesome to watch those talents go to work for the Lord! Our attendance continues to be blessed as does our youth. Brother Bryan and Brother Ronnie have been working with the teens to help "earn" their trip to Youth Alive. Brother Ronnie does a great job with our youth and they all love him and Sister Maranda. A few of our "young at heart" members have been a little under the weather. Please remember Sister Carol Pulliam and Brother Charles Evans in your prayers. We miss them when they aren't feeling well. It isn't the same without them! May the Lord continue to bless all of the work done in His name in 2012.

Charity, Bismarck, sends Happy New Year Greetings to each of you. God has truly blessed us this past year. We are rejoicing over the work of the Holy Spirit in lives. We are so thankful that God pursues those He loves. We want to know Him more and more. New families are attending, doors of opportunity are opening, and fellowship is good. The Jail Ministry is going well. God's Word is preached every Wednesday, to the men one week and to the women the next week. The Bible Ministry is opening doors for Bible Study in at least three Institutions in the area. We want to remember the lost, to pray for them daily, and to witness to all we meet. Hopefully, we will have a full house being trained when DiscipleWay comes to Potosi in February. The Fellowship Choir sang at the Genevieve Baptist Church Christmas Program and also at the Washington County Fellowship Meeting held at Stony Point. Some of us did not get to attend the Sing at Zion due to our own Christmas Dinner and Fellowship at Charity. Brother Meade has been sharing stories from the Philippine Mission Work on Wednesday evenings. The latest was a visit from Valarie Fish and the Missionary Kid point of view. What a time of refreshing for the missionary family. Most attenders have expressed a great interest in the work in the past and that is still going on there.

Until we meet again.

Mt. Zion, Ellington, is looking forward to serving God in a brand new year. November 27th our visitors were Andy and his wife Danyell Lahmann from First Missionary Baptist Church in Bourbon, MO. The Lahmanns have four children. Brother Andy is a good speaker and brought a very inspiring message. Since we knew they were coming we had a delicious Thanksgiving dinner prepared. They will be moving to Cortez, CO, as missionaries on the Navajo Indian Reservation in New Mexico. They have gone there for the past three years. Drugs are rampant among the Indians. The Lahmanns covet your prayers. We really enjoyed having them visit us. We are glad to have Sister Rita back as she was in the hospital for minor surgery. She is doing well. After our services December 11th and a light lunch we held services at the nursing home. The message was great and the singing was beautiful. Hoping everyone honored our Savior's birthday. Until next time - we send our love and prayers to those who might be hurting. We love you!

Ozark Heights, Potosi, sends "Greetings and Happy New Year" to all our Christian brothers and sisters! 2011 was not the best year, but we are looking for 2012 to be a better year for us at Ozark Heights. We had several saved and 5 baptized in 2011 and we pray for more to come to know our Lord this year. Our members have been busy preparing for Christmas. December 4th the Choir gave us a beautiful Cantata of Christmas songs and praises. Thanks to Sister Sara and the choir for all their hard work and lovely music! We also had a beautiful Christmas play on the 25th, songs, stories and poems were given by the members; a very touching program. We sure need to remember what Christmas is all about; a Savior who gave His life for our sins, dying a terrible death, who rose again to save us from our sin. Brother Brian reminds us each Sunday; how much we owe to Jesus who gave it all, because of His love for each of us. We had around 13 go to Youth Alive thanks to Sister Connie Evans, Sister Gerri Lawson, Brother Brian and Sister Dawn who work with our youth. We are so thankful to have them and for all they do. They had an amazing time and came home excited about serving God. We say hello and send our love to Sister Geraldine Warden and Sister Gurlean Robinson. They are no longer able to attend and are missed so much. We feel their love and prayers. We are so glad to have Brother Gary and Brother Josh back with us. December 17th Brother Joe and Sister Clarice Casner renewed their wedding vowels with a very nice turn out to witness a touching service. Until next month; may God bless each and every member in His loving family.

✝ From Our Workers ✝

From Our Director....

2012! Wow! Can you believe it? The new year is here and for many of us it is a time to declare that this next year will be different from the last. I know of one pastor who challenged his congregation to commit to doing five new missional activities during 2012. That's a great challenge.

Another friend of mine, Dr. David D e V r i e s , (www.MissionalChallenge.com) is a great communicator and teacher on how our primary task as Christians is to make disciples...Disciple makers that make disciples. He really believes that we ought to reach out to where people are and engage them with the gospel...in deed and in word. It makes sense to me. We will not reach very many souls if we simply wait for them to show up in our church services. In one of Dr. Dave's blogs he wrote about 4 ways that we can show people outside the church that we care about them. The following list is from his blog:

1. Serve

How can you meet genuine needs? Can you offer to babysit your neighbor's kids? Can you help your neighbor with a home-improvement project? Find out a need in their life right now - and offer to help meet that need. (If you don't know what they might need - Ask them!)

2. Time

How could you give someone the gift of time? People are busy. You probably need more time in your day. Think of ways to give someone more time. Offer to pick up their kids and give them a ride home from practice or school. Offer to let someone go in front of you the next time you are standing in line at Starbucks or the grocery store. That's a gift of time. Give up a close parking spot to someone so that they don't have to walk as far - especially if it's someone that you know.

3. Affirmation

Encourage others. Send an encouraging note, email, or text message. Tell them something you appreciate about them. Acknowledge their efforts. Celebrate their progress. Affirm their kids. These things are always encouraging. Give them the gift of your affirming words.

4. Gifts

Who doesn't like gifts? I do - and I'm so grateful when someone gives me even the smallest gift. It's a tangible expression of care. If you like getting gifts, others you know probably do too. Can you bake an apple pie for a neighbor? Can you buy a cup of coffee? Can you give someone a gift card? Gifts can open up an amazing opportunity for conversation.

I must admit that his list of four ways to care for others is simple, very simple! Yet how many times do we let an opportunity to do one of those four things simply get pass us? Maybe a good resolution for this new year would be to do all four for someone outside of your church family before this winter is over. And come Spring, recommit to do all four again. And when Summer comes...well you get the point.

"For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink; I was stranger, and you invited Me in; naked, and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison, and you came to Me." -- Jesus (Matt. 25:35-36)

Jim Ainley (Committee Chairman) leading in some fun activities
Some Comments From 321 Improve

I cannot tell you how much fun we had with guys at the Alive Conference in St. Louis the last couple days! It's been a crazy week. In the past few days we've traveled a lot of miles and missed out on a lot of sleep, but I'm so glad we ended the week at Alive.

From Bro. Jones...

Dear Friends,
Happy New Year! We wish you a blessed 2012. I am thankful for how God used North Lake Church in 2011 and we are thankful for your involvement through prayer and support. Please know that God is answering prayers daily and that He is at work here in Smithville. We are looking forward to a great 2012 and answers to ongoing prayers.

This past Sunday, January 1st, we had a great worship service. We reflected as a church, as families, and as individuals upon 2011. Many memories and favorite North Lake moments were shared in an effort to thank God for all He had done in our midst during 2011. We laughed, cried, and listened as each person shared. We celebrated changed lives, victories, struggles, and lessons learned. It was a great worship service that didn't end when we left the Bank.

A young lady, who has asked lots of questions over the last six months, sat down with Rebekah and I after service. She had said previously that, she didn't want to make a commitment to God unless she was serious. I greatly respected that! On January 1st, 2012 she was serious and sincere as tears flowed from her eyes while confessing Jesus as Lord and Savior! I couldn't think of a better way to start the new year.

2012 has been a great year!
Jamie Jones, Missionary to Smithville, MO

Dustin was great to listen to and Broken Vessels absolutely rocked the house!

And you guys totally accepted our challenge to reach into your creative and weird sides.

A few animals came up in the show. That zebra that was on fire at the zoo, the octopus that was being trained to sell wigs, a visit to see Bigfoot, and how about Mile's impersonation of a panda bear?

A couple of other pictures that stick in my mind at the Justin Bieber poster (he really does have a higher voice that Miley Cyrus), along with Mike and Matt tied together after being pushed out of an airplane.

I think my favorite suggestions were: the cheese fell off my cracker, and a small boy as the crime weapon. Outstanding!

Then we got to come back this morning to see Mike as Mister Rogers and Matt afraid of the floor!

We can't wait to hear from you on our guestbook. Let us know what you did on the long drive home. And have a Happy New Year!

From Darin Slater...

When you guys get home from Youth Alive, make sure you check your friend lists and add them to this group!! Let's get the word out about Youth Alive for next year starting NOW!!!

What's our life's goal? To make God Famous and Happy. It that what you really want? Examine yourself!

• NEWS From Page 2 • should challenge ourselves to be guided by the Holy Spirit. As we have lost loved ones, gained loved ones, and start a brand new year, may the Lord bless us in 2012. News for December begins with a Secret Sister revealing dinner that was held at Family Traditions in Sikeston. This was a fun filled evening of good food and sisterly fellowship. December 11th there was a special Christmas singing at the New Madrid Nursing Home with a big turnout and the residents really enjoying singing along with us. During the month of December, our WMA purchased Christmas gifts for residents of nursing homes in the area. The evening of the 11th our youth presented their Christmas program called "Dude, you hear what I hear?" They all worked very hard to present a funny rendition of mannequins coming to life and learning the true meaning of Christmas. Following the program everyone was invited to stay and eat. December the 18th, the morning service was replaced by the adult Christmas Cantata entitled "O Holy Night." This was led and conducted by Shelly Johnson. Kay Kimes narrated and Jacob Johnson provided the sound. During the weekend of Christmas, Brother Dan and Sister Pam Wisely traveled to visit their family. In their absence, Brother Joey Duckworth led the morning worship service with Brother Caleb Houston filling in during the night services. Other Christmas activities involved our church being involved in "Operation Christmas Shoebox" and "Soles 4 Souls." We filled around 25 shoeboxes to send overseas. Over 230 pairs of shoes were collected and taken to Nashville to pass out to needy souls. As our year comes to a close, we notice how much our youth have grown in their Christian lives. They ended their year with a trip to the Youth Alive Conference in St. Louis December 29, 30, and 31st with guest speaker Brother Dustin Wisely. Nine youth were in attendance along with 6 adult youth leaders. Upon their return they put on a program recapping their trip and experiences at the conference. Hopefully a lot of prayer and decisions were made that can be carried into the New Year. Looking forward to events starting in January we see: 50 days of prayer for our missionaries at home and abroad, starting the new semester for the Faith Bible Institute class, and the No Greater Love Service on the 28th, from 6-10. Everyone is invited. Please continue to pray for our church for the new year. With confidence in God, we can look back and look ahead, then walk boldly into the New Year. Love in Christ.

Dan Wisely, Pastor
Jenni Duckworth, Reporter

Stony Point, Mineral Point, says, "Happy New Year to everyone!!" We were blessed November 13th to witness the baptism of Katrina Kelley and Brittany Gorman as they publicly showed their obedience to our Lord. November 22nd the church gave thanks to God for His grace and blessings upon her in 2011 with a Thanksgiving dinner. It was a great time of fellowship. December 10th Stony Point held a fellowship meeting with the Fellowship Choir singing Christmas songs which blessed our hearts. December 18th the ladies of the church held a cookie exchange and after a final accounting, we believe that James Bourbon might have "shortchanged" the "exchange." December 28th Brother Dale Fish, and his son Aaron Dale, from Emerson, Arkansas gave a presentation to the church about the Shepherd's Bag ministry in Honduras. Stony Point has a heart for this work and it was exciting to see the young souls being touched and the missionary calling in action. Please keep several members of our church, who have lost or been displaced from their residence due to a recent fire, in your prayers.

Landmark, DeSoto, says, "Hello and Happy New Year." We hope everyone had a very Merry Christmas and enjoyed family and friends. We went Caroling on the 17th and visited with some of our shut-ins and the ones in nursing homes. The evening before we had a fish fry supplied by Bro. Stinson and Bro. Fielder. The ladies added all the trimmings. It was a wonderful time and a good break from turkey and ham. We are looking forward to the new year and the challenges that go with it too. Until next month, stay warm and God Bless.

First, Potosi, sends greetings to all for the new year. We have lost in death several loving members including three infants these last few months. But, our loving God blessed us on Christmas day with the baptism of seven: Olivia Coleman (daughter of RP & Cathy Coleman); Ashley Johnston (daughter of Bob & Cathy Johnston); Tucker Ray Juliette (son of Tom & Gwen Juliette); David and Jordan Kopp (who are the parents of Alexa & Annie); and Aaron & Raven Porter (who are the parents of Noelle & Mya). We welcome them and will enjoy getting to know them. What a blessing for Christmas Day. The Christmas pageant was held the week before Christmas and the singing and praise for Christ's birth is always enjoyed by young and just older youth. Thank you Sister Laurie for all your hard work. While the youth made their trip to ALIVE and were blessed with spiritual renewals, members at home volunteered to shampoo and clean carpets which was a major job for such a large floor plan. We are thankful for Brother Jim and the leaders who went with the youth on this trip and for those who volunteered at home to clean floors. Brother Dale has had some health issues, but as soon as he is home, he is on the phone, doing visitation or behind the pulpit teaching and preaching where he is needed. Pray for his health as he serves. In the New Year's Day service the church observed the Lord's Supper. The New F.B.I. classes start Jan 8 - "a study of

DiscipleGuide Executive Director Resigns

It has been my honor and privilege to serve my Lord and the BMAA as Executive Director of DiscipleGuide Church Resources for the last five years. These have been years wrought with many changes in this organization brought on by the merger, as well as by external forces in the publishing industry. Even in changing times, we all know assuredly that our God changes not and His Word is eternally established. The methods utilized in taking "all the Word to all the world" may be changing, but the mission remains the same. What a privilege and responsibility we have as believers to fulfill the mandate of the Great Commission!

Springhill, Fairdealing, sends greetings once again. God continues to bless us - Sunday started the New Year with God sending us visitors in our service. As usual, our pastor preached a great message. His text was taken from Philippians 4:11, and his subject was "Learning to be content." Everything happens for a reason, and we just need to trust God. We reflected over the last year - there were some difficult times for each family, but we know God has a plan in all areas of our life, whether we understand it at the time or not. We all agreed that it is a good thing that God is in control because if it was left up to us, we would mess it up somehow. Isn't it great that our God reigns!!! The building of our new school is moving along. The sub-floor was just completed, and now we are praying for God to supply the funds to build walls and ceiling for the first floor. Each step we take we look to God for supplying our needs - He knows much better than we do, when and where we should be working. Bro. Don Brooks has been transferred to a hospital in St. Louis. They are running tests, so please pray for him and his family in this stressful time. Also, please pray for Sis. Sarah Gladden as she will be undergoing tests in the next few weeks. We all need to pray for one another. Satan is on the attack, but with God's help we can overcome and be victorious. God bless you all in the New Year!

After eight years of service to our association in a director's role (three years in North American missions), I have reached the inescapable conclusion that I still possess "a pastor's heart." After months of prayer regarding God's will for my life, I have accepted the call of the Bethel Baptist Church of Fulton, Mississippi, to serve as their Senior Pastor, effective January 1, 2012. Though my family and I are truly excited by this opportunity, we are grieving over leaving our DiscipleGuide family and the many friends we've made in Texarkana. DiscipleGuide will always be dear to my heart and vital to the work of our association. All the members of our Board of Directors and every employee at DCR will abide in my prayers forever. They are an amazing group of Christian workers!

Walk/Run For the World Winners Announced

Diane Ward, LifeWord's National
Walk/Run for the World Coordinator

For the fourth year in a row, congratulations are in order for Springhill Baptist Church, Springhill, Arkansas, for raising the most money for the Walk/Run for the World. They exceeded their own previous record with an offering of $37,917.50, which is $1,212.50 more than they raised in 2010. Hall Summit Baptist Church, Hall Summit, Louisiana, was the leading per capita contributor again for the third straight year with an offering of $25,000, which exceeded their previous offering by $2,192. With an average worship attendance of 30, the church's offerings averaged $833.33 per person. Springhill and Hall Summit may once again select two people to take an all expenses paid overseas mission trip in 2012.

LifeWord also wants to recognize Kewanee Baptist Church, Kewanee, Missouri, who came in second overall with their contribution of $28,268.43, and Sunset Baptist Church, Lamesa, Texas, was the second highest per capita contributor, giving an average of $300 per person ($7,500 divided by their average worship attendance of 25).

The 2011 Walk/Run for the World offerings officially close on June 30, 2012, so that gives your church plenty of time to make a contribution. We appreciate the faithful participation and support of our churches each year.

Walk/Run for the World offerings are used to fund LifeWord broadcasts that are currently in 35 languages and 49 formats, and the offerings go to developing programs in additional languages as God opens doors. In 2011, LifeWord added broadcasts in the Dangme (Ghana, West Africa), Burmese (Myanmar), and Brazilian Portuguese languages. Broadcast training was also provided for new producers in Africa, Thailand, and Bolivia, resulting in at least four new languages being added in 2012. The people who can finally hear the Good News in their own heart language are the real winners! Thanks to all who helped make that possible.

Top contributors in each Walk/Run region receive an award from LifeWord. This year's regional winners are:

LifeWord Gives Sight to the Blind

Rick Russell, LifeWord's Chief Programming Officer, received the following note the first week of January. It is a great reminder of our mission and calling. To read more stories of changed lives, visit www.lifeword.org.

"Last month we had a very interesting visitor who traveled for twenty hours to come and meet us. He is a listener of the Kannada LifeWord program. It was interesting to know that he came to know Christ as his personal savior through the broadcast. This man traveled all the way by himself and was completely blind. He came wanting to meet us just to let us know how thankful he was for the program. He only spent a couple of hours

BMA Pastor Releases New Book

Can real life and the Bible mix? Can real wisdom be found in the common, everyday events when viewed through the scriptures? Retired BMAA Pastor James Barr believes so! The former Senior Pastor of Calvary Baptist Church brings together the wisdom found in the scriptures with real life challenges in his newly released book, For His Glory: A Kaleidoscope of Wisdom.

Compiling a series of personal memoirs, historical facts, and biblical biographies, Pastor Barr presents the reader with practical and useful views that will enrich his or her life. Short, pointed and positive, For His Glory: A Kaleidoscope of Wisdom, is a collection of inspirational thoughts presented in an easy and enjoyable manner. Like looking through a kaleidoscope, the beauty of God's wisdom and glory come to life for today's reader. Although deep biblical truths are shared, they are shared within an often amusing common sense manner from which all ages can benefit. Currently Pastor Barr's book is only offered online at www.amazon.com/author/jamesbarr or through the author's website net153.com.

James (Jim) Barr has a total of almost forty years in the ministry serving as Pastor, and Missionary. Brother Barr also conducts both short and extensive fun workshops on Finding God's Wisdom for Your Life for churches, bookstores, auxiliary church groups, and clubs. He may be contacted by email at: pastorbarr@hotmail.com or by phone (812) 325-0158. More information concerning author Barr and his book is also available at www.amazon.com/author/jamesbarr.

Directory and Handbook Deadline Approaching

Bobby Hudgens, Research and Development Officer

DiscipleGuide Information Services is nearing the end of our church survey phase. After that we will turn our attention to processing information and doing the layout work for the 2012-13 Directory and Handbook. If your church did not submit its 2011 DiscipleGuide church letter form between August 1, 2011, and the present, please do so soon. The deadline is February 15, 2012. You can submit a paper copy of the church letter to DiscipleGuide by mail (p. 257 in the current directory), or complete and submit the online version (DiscipleGuide.org/ChurchLetter) before February 15.

If a church has given at least $20 over the past year to DiscipleGuide for publishing the Directory and Handbook, it will qualify for two complimentary copies. One will be mailed to the church address, and a second will be available upon request. However, if a church has not given an offering to DiscipleGuide over the past year, copies will be available for purchase at $20 each plus shipping and handling.

Thank you, and if you have suggestions for improving the directory, e-mail us at info@DiscipleGuide.org.

National WMA Project Funds Needed

On the first Easter morning the angel told a group of women, "...Go quickly and tell his disciples that He is risen from the dead..." (Matthew 28:7) You may think it a coincidence that the ones who received this message were women. I think it was a divine calling that women received that morning and we at this time, also have important work to do.

We have been given the vital task of telling the world about our risen Savior and producing disciples who can keep the message going until the whole world hears. The National Women's Missionary Auxiliary is a vital part of spreading the word by our endeavors in the field of missions.

We remind you of the combined National WMA projects and the need for your support in these projects. The Hatti Relief Fund will help many families get their lives back together after the hurricane and the IsHelp English Language Program will reach so many more people. Please prayerfully consider supporting these projects.

Your Project offerings should be received by the end of February 2012. The address for sending project money is:

Servant Leadership

Ephesians 3:1-13

by Dennis Baker, President, BMA of Missouri Brotherhood Auxiliary

Paul's letter to the church of Ephesus demonstrates that the purpose of the Lord's New Testament Church was the inclusion of all nationalities in the proclaiming of God's eternal plan of redemption to all of humanity. Paul's personal testimony concerning his role in God's mission of sharing the unsearchable riches of Christ with the Gentiles exposes some important principals relating to servant leadership.

1. Servant leadership focuses on God's plan. V 2, "Dispensation of the grace of God," denotes an arrangement or plan. Paul states the he "was made a minister, according to the grace of God, V 7." Paul was not selected by his own choosing but was entrusted to proclaim the Gospel to the Gentiles. Paul viewed his calling as a privilege and sacred trust. Paul was divinely appointed by God, his apostleship was nothing less than the result of the working of God.

2. Servant leadership involves stewardship. Paul's stewardship of grace has particular reference to the inclusion of all people groups in God's mystery of redemption. The inclusion of all nationalities into the "family of God" and the Lord's New Testament church was revealed in the Old Testament, but what was not foreseen in Old Testament times was the fact that God's promised blessings would incorporate the Jewish and Gentile believers on the common ground of Divine Grace. God's favor is not to be enjoyed as a private luxury but shared with others.

3. Servant leadership has a purpose, V. 8. "Unsearchable riches of Christ," reveals a missionary purpose. It refers to the boundless resources of Christ for meeting the needs of sinful humanity, V. 9. "Make all men see" has reference to a theological purpose. God's intention has always been to offer redemption to all nationalities, but for all practical purposes that intention lay unrevealed until the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ was revealed to the world.

Since the letter was written to the church of Ephesus these principals have application not only to ministers but every member of the Lord's New Testament church. Servant leadership involves your role in God's mission, of sharing the unsearchable riches of Christ. Remember it is nothing less than the working of God. Servant leadership involves stewardship. God's favor is not to be enjoyed as a private luxury but shared with others. Servant leadership has a missionary and theological purpose.

It is encouraging to know that God has a role for each of us in His Divine Master Plan. There are no second-class citizens in God's kingdom. We are all equals.

2012 Goal: Grow Larger

Surely you didn't think that I would actually suggest you gain a bunch of weight as a goal for 2012! I am writing about growing larger in a spiritual sense. Every Christian should have a burning desire to grow larger, deeper, purer, higher than ever before in their walk with the Lord. While the desire may be there, the ability to carry it out is another story. There is this thing called "finding the time" that keeps slipping away. How fast do your days go? Does it seem that the weeks and months just fly by? Yet, we must carve out each day, some time to spend with God, our Father, and Jesus, our Savior and the Holy Spirit, our comforter.

There is another problem to growing in our faith. It is our personalities. It is who we are as a person. On the one hand, there are a small minority of people who are driven and laziness isn't in their vocabulary. However, this extreme drive can also be detrimental. Often times these people are perfectionist, workaholics, or obsessive/compulsive people who do things out of a need to feel adequate and accepted. This causes you to do your bible study not out of a deep abiding love for Christ, but just one more item to check off on your daily push to do every thing just right. Your Bible study then becomes a routine and a ritual, rather than life-changing. You find acceptance of yourself by doing things on time and just right. This helps your self-esteem and makes you feel better about yourself. Performing task to make yourself more acceptable is impossible when it comes to God. If you have Christ in your heart, you cannot be anymore acceptable than you already are. No completion of tasks can change that fact. God loves and accepts you forever in Christ.

Then there is a majority of humans that fall into the lazy category. None of us like to think of ourselves as lazy, but it is a common human condition. When you combine this with a lack of burning passion for the things of Christ; you get people who don't truly grow in faith. We like the pleasures of the world. We like to relax when we are not at work or doing chores. I'm just not motivated like I should be. If these people do grow, it is at a snail's pace. How could you explode in spiritual growth in 2012?

1) Repent of your tendency towards laziness or obsessive drive. Ask God to give you a burning desire from the Holy Spirit to "want" to pray and study His word. Literally ask for this specifically in prayer. But have the "desire" be from Him, and not of your flesh.

2) Make it a habit. Once you get into the habit of doing a bible study and personal prayer time; it becomes part of your daily routine. A daily routine doesn't have to be uninspiring. It just makes it easier to accomplish. We humans are creatures of habit. When we get ready in the morning, or at night or during the day, if we don't make God part of our habit; then the whole day goes by and you wake up the next day and say, "oh man I didn't do my Bible study." Doing a prolonged time of prayer, seeking God's face, should be as common as eating breakfast, combing your hair, or drinking your favorite beverage when you get up. Once it becomes a habit, it then becomes strange when you don't do it. A huge step towards growing is to make prayer and Bible study a habit.

3) Be realistic. I hear people all the time tell me they are going to start setting their alarm an hour earlier, and get up in the wee hours of the morning for their personal growth time. 99% of the time, this will never last. You have to create this habit of devotion time that is reasonable and realistic with your life style. There are some people who actually wake up at 5:00 a.m. and can do a quiet time before anyone else in the house gets up. If that is your personality bend, "a morning person," then go for it. But if you like to linger when the alarm goes off, don't attempt to do spiritual growth at an hour that is not your cup of tea. You will only grit your teeth for a month or two and then get out of the habit. Carve out a time and place that works for you and stick to it. If you have kids, then they need to be made to understand that you are not to be disturbed during this time. Invariably there may be an interruption with small kids, and just go with it. But it shouldn't be that you are always interrupted by them, and don't get to do it. It is awesome for them to learn that you respect your time alone with God. It teaches them a valuable lesson for their own future spiritual growth.

4) Refuse to feel guilty if you miss a day. It happens. You don't skip a day without prayer. I mean you may just miss occasionally your private time. It's okay. Just quickly re-establish the habit.

5) If you can't do this consistently, check your heart. You may have a heart problem. Our King not only commands us to do this, but how could you stand in His presence and not want to do this? If nothing else, let Jesus do heart surgery on you in 2012. After all, He is the great physician.

• BLIND From Page 5 • this man come all the way on his own just to come and thank the ministry. Let us all continue to work together so that we can reach out to many more like this young man who needed a savior."

Central Baptist College Has New Website

10 Years. 10 Projects. 2020 Students

The new CBC website www.cbc.edu has been launched with a completely updated look and a ton of new features. Many additional links can now be found right on the homepage using the dropdown menus making it much faster and easier to find what you're looking for. An exciting new feature, the Virtual Experience, gives prospective students an inside look at CBC. It features an interactive campus map complete with videos specific for each building, along with other student videos that give students a unique look at what CBC is all about. Another new feature is the Events tab. We will now be able to let the general public, alumni, staff and students know about upcoming events at CBC. While this is still under development, it will be a great addition to the site.

CBC Athletics now has their own brand new site... www.cbcmustangs.com! This site was very much needed and will allow students, parents, and fans to get all of the info they might need about CBC sports, players, game schedules, stats, etc. It even has a new athletics store to shop for Mustang apparel and a "Recruit Me" button that will help our coaches quickly respond to interested athletes.

There are still a few changes being made and features that are still being developed that will be added when they become available. As with all new websites, I'm sure we'll find some links that are not working properly and information that was either out-of-date or inaccurate when we copied everything over. If you notice errors or see things that need to be changed immediately, please contact Curt (ccrook@cbc.edu) or call him at 501-329-6872 extension 111.
